Report on Project Orientation Session

Introduction:

The Postgraduate Department of Commerce at PES Institute of Advanced Management Studies (PESIAMS) organized a project orientation session for final year M.Com students on June 7, 2024. The session aimed to provide guidance and insights into the various stages of undertaking a research project. Dr. Dileep Kumar S.D., the Coordinator of the PG Department of Commerce, PESIAMS, conducted the session.

Objective:

The primary objective of the project orientation session was to guide the final year M.Com students through the various steps involved in the research project process, from topic selection to submission. The session aimed to provide clarity on each stage, enabling students to undertake their projects effectively and efficiently.

Overview:

The session was conducted by Dr. Dileep Kumar S.D., who meticulously outlined the nine essential steps involved in the research project:

Step 1: Selection of Topic after Discussing with Guide

Dr. Dileep emphasized the significance of selecting a research topic aligned will the student's interest and relevance to the field of commerce. He stressed the importance of consulting with the project guide to ensure the chosen topic is feasible and significant.

Step 2: Collection of Materials from Secondary Sources

The session highlighted the importance of thorough research and the utilization of secondary sources such as books, journals, articles, and online databases to gather relevant literature and data pertaining to the chosen topic.

Step 3: Develop the Research Problems, Objectives, etc.

Dr. Dileep guided the students on formulating clear research problems, objectives, hypotheses, and research questions, which serve as the foundation of any research project.

Step 4: Prepare the First Draft of Chapter - I

Students were instructed on structuring the first chapter of their project, which typically includes an introduction, background of the study, problem statement, objectives, significance, and scope of the study.
