WISHES FOR A VERY HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS MARRIED LIFE

Dear Mr. VINAY KUMAR K S and Mrs. VINTA A R

Seasons of life change in rapid succession. In every stage we can learn various values of life. A marriage is a perfect union when two different souls become one. This is a socially recognized union between spouses that establishes rights and obligation between both. Marriage is a sacred and pious relationship that reforms a person into a complete human being to set himself/herself to learn to sacrifice for the happiness of others.

We feel immensely happy to know that you are unfolding a new way of life. Hearty Congratulations and best wishes to you and your life partner for traversing a beautiful new journey together.

May God be the cord that binds your marriage and makes it secure and successful.

With hearty felicitations
