Two day Online Seminar on Legal Privileges of Women in Contemporary India

Under the banner of MYTHRI (Women Empowerment and Harassment Prevention cell)

"Human rights are Women's rights and women rights are human rights, once and for all".

We live in the country where Goddesses are worshiped, but women are harassed, abused, raped and kidnapped every single day. They are being denied their property rights which they are rightfully due. Keeping a check on a number of women related cases, the Government of India provides crucial rights to Indian women, but unfortunately, in India due to poverty, ignorance, illiteracy and complexity of law, most of the women do not know their rights. Hence on the part of women's empowerment cell of the college Mythri (legal privileges of women in contemporary India), a Two day Online National Seminar was held on 26th & 27th of June 2020. Though it is a woman related topic the sessions were open to all irrespective of the gender, as 'Men' are the counterpart of women who also need to be educated on the matter. Highly qualified and eminent personalities in the field of Law and having wide experience in their respective areas of expertise were the resource persons.

In the first technical session, the resource person Mr. Durga Prasad, Senior Advocate at High Court of Hyderabad, who spoke on the topic 'Property rights of women in India' (Hindu, Muslim, Christian, Buddhist, Zoroastrian) traced the historical victory for women when they were given equal rights on par with men in the property of their father. He explained how the rights of women varied according to the religion to which they belonged to.

The resource person Smt. Sundari R. Pisupathi in the second technical session in the afternoon of 26th June spoke about 'Cyber crime against women and children and legal aids available for their protection'. She explained in length about cyber stalker, cyber defamation, cyber pornography and cyber harassment and the punishment prescribed under cyber law. She also advised the online measures to be followed to avoid this crime and further pointed out that the only way to overcome cyber crimes is through digital literacy.

The resource person for the third technical session Smt. P Aparna Naidu who spoke about 'Sexual Harassment at work place' explained about the relevant Act passed in the year 2013 and what amounts to sexual harassment, how it is applicable to both private and public sectors and organized and unorganized sectors. She described the procedure of creating the mechanism for redressal of complaints, formation of internal complaints committee and safeguard against false or malicious charges.

The fourth and last session was taken up by Dr. G B Reddy who spoke on the topic 'Domestic Violence'. He explained about protecting women from domestic violence Act 2005, the scope and definition of domestic violence. The speaker described how the definition is wide enough to include wife or female live in partner and how it protects all women living in the household including sisters, widows or mothers and that the term domestic violence includes actual abuse or the threats of abuse, whether physical, sexual, verbal, emotional or economic.

All the four sessions were highly informative and of much relevance and well received and appreciated by the participants numbering 132 from across the country.

The seminar began with welcome note by the Principal Dr. K Sailatha and again vote of thanks by her on the concluding day. The HODs Dr. Nagaraja SR, Dr. Sudarshan GM and Smt. Roopa DS introduced the resource persons to the participants.

Smt. G Sharada, Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Mythri, Ms. Swathi J, Ms. Tejaswini, and Ms. Ayesha siddiqua were the hosts for the sessions. The technical team included Mr. Darshan, Mr. Rangaswamy and Mr. Praveen.
