Prof. H M Nagaraj is an author, playwright and singer. He motivated the students not to go behind the money as most of the people sole purpose in the modern world has become to go behind money by which they have forgotten the minimum social responsibilities. Students shouldn't impetus only on acquiring marks instead must take social responsibilities on to their shoulder. Their knowledge shall be constructive for the family and society. Students have to take inspiration from great personalities such as Budha, Mahathma Gandhi, Dr. B R Ambedkar, Abdul Kalam, Kuvempu, P. T. Narasimhachar and many others. Significance must be given to humanity. Many noted individuals from Bhakthi movement have proclaimed that every person should thrive to become better version of them self. Preaching of such personalities is a guide to live a blissful life. Prof. H M Nagaraj furthermore said that with the knowledge they should work towards betterment of the society.
