Report on Special Talk Landscape of New Education Policy (NEP) 2020 –What, Why and How?

The Hon'ble Governor, Shri. Thawar Chand Gehlot inaugurated the Special talk on 'New Education Policy – 2020' in Prerana Convention Hall, PES Trust (R), and he addressed the students on the implementation of the NEP and added that NEP includes a series of devotion, patriotism and Gurukula Education. It also helps in building good relationship between students and teachers.

He said that local education is emphasized in the New Education Policy. In our country there are thousands of languages and NEP is allowing to study the subjects in their mother tongue, nations like China and Germany have been giving an opportunity to get their education in their respective mother tongue or preferred language. The NEP emphasizes on skill-based education to younger generation. Karnataka became the first state to implement this NEP among the other states of India.

He mentioned that, he was overwhelmed for having come to Karnataka from Madhya Pradesh. There is reverence for Kannada language and the ground. Karnataka, which has been the foremost figure in India, lauded the implementation of the new national education policy above all else.

The dais was shared by Shri. B.Y Raghavendra, The Managing Trustee, PES Trust (R) and MP of Shivamogga Constituency, Smt. S Y Arunadevi, The Trustee, PES Trust (R) and The Director, Jana Shikshana Samsthan, Shri. R Subhash, Governing Council Member, PES Trust (R), Dr. R Nagaraja, The Chief Coordinator Administration, PES Trust (R) and Prof. M V Chaitanya Kumar, Principal, PESITM. The program was attended by Principals of other sister-concern institutions of PES Trust, Heads of various departments, faculty members. Around 700 Students were actively participated in the special talk.
