“PROJECT DEVELOPMENT”

29-12-2017

Mr. Mallikarjuna G. D., addressing the gathering suggested BCA students to be innovative developers of products and systems. He shared his experience at IT companies and suggested the students to inculcate skills used in technology, such as planning, project management, testing and marketing.

He motivated the students that they should desire to build a strong base for practical problem solving in several areas. He inspired the students group by telling them that they are reservoir of talents and also should be creative.

He gave information about Government/Non-government facilities provided for innovative ideas. He also gave information regarding funds that will be issued by these organizations to support a diverse group of individual and team projects. These organizations are also conducting Competition-based projects which the students can get benefits.

Mrs. Roopa D. S., HOD of BCA Department, Mr. Rakesh D'Souza HOD of commerce department and the faculty members of BCA Department were present during the occasion.
