Report on Guest talk

Corporate Expectations from Graduates

A special session on 'Corporate Expectations from Graduates' was organized the final year students of Commerce and Management Department of the institution on 16.01.2019 at 11.00 AM. Mr. Santhosh Kumar, The Deputy General Manager, Bhagath Motors Bangalore began his lecture by defining the term professional ethics, which refers to the professionally accepted standards of personal and business behavior, values and guiding principle, organizational and corporate standards of behavior.

He explained how to use this knowledge for providing a service to the public as a moral issue and termed it as professional ethics. He added that, the professional accountants play an important role in building up the economic wellbeing of the community and the country with their attitude, behavior and unique services. They should have common objectives while working in capacities such as external auditors, internal auditors, financial experts, tax experts and management accountants.

He said that, auditors being a trained professional are capable of making judgments, applying their skills and reaching informed decisions in situations where the untrained public cannot. The students were eager to interact with the guest speaker and raised many questions, which were answered patiently by him. The principal, HODs and faculty members were present during the occasion. The session ended with felicitation by the principal to the guest and vote of thanks rendered by Mr. Sathish V, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce & Management.
