A meeting of the Anti Sexual Harassment Cell was held on 20. 8.2019 at the principal's chamber at 4.05 pm to discuss about organizing a programme that benefits the girl students.

The principal welcomed the members of the cell for the meeting. She asked the members whether they have come across any incidents about harassments or any oral complaints from any girls. The members replied in the negative. The coordinator also informed the principal that no written complaints have been received from the girl students.

Next the principal informed the members about the need for organizing a programme exclusively for girl students for enhancing their health and hygiene. The discussion went on to select a proper resource person for the same. Many names were suggested and finally the name of Dr.Shubratha, Psychiatrist, Shivamogga was finalized and it was proposed to have the topic 'personal hygiene and cleanliness for women' on 29.08.19 and all the girl students of the college would be the audience.

The meeting came to a close as there was no other matter to be transacted.
